1. The Chinese Communist have built two secret arsenals and nine warehouses in the T'aich'uanshan (嘉陵江) area, near Pingyuanchen (131.11, 45-11). The arsenals and warehouses have been built inside a tunnel dug into the mountain. A light rail line connects these installations with Titachou (通道河).
2. The T'aich'uanshan arsenal now employs 1,500 workmen, making explosives, land mines, shells and hand grenades. Power for the arsenal comes from a power plant at Chihsing (赤城). The warehouses are used exclusively for the stockpiling of raw materials needed for the manufacture of ammunition and arms.
